

Global Vision Awards

2010 Winner ~ Travel + Leisure Magazine

A unique window into Irish/Gaelic culture

*Experience & enjoy...
...the culture, nature
& landscape of Conamara!*

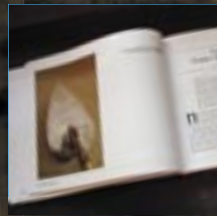

History, Heritage
& Traditions

Music, song
& dance

Natural history
& Archaeology

The Irish/Gaelic
language

Ethical Travel Award Winner

The Guardian/Observer World Travel Awards 2009

"Cnoc Suain, a place quite unlike any other, where Irish traditions are alive and kicking." Kevin Rushby, The Guardian.

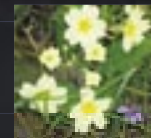

As Irish/Gaelic speakers, musicians, natural scientists, teachers and owners of Cnoc Suain, we offer you an exclusive and memorable learning experience in this cultural retreat in the Conamara Gaeltacht (Irish/Gaelic speaking area).

A unique window into Irish/Gaelic culture

An exclusive programme for private groups

- Irish traditional music, song and story – with live performance.
- An opportunity to learn a céilí dance.
- The Irish/Gaelic language – in poetry & song, with Gaelic speakers.
- Natural history & Archaeology of the Conamara landscape.
- Traditional customs & practices of a Conamara Gaeltacht farm, including:
Irish Soda bread-making – a demonstration / Making a St. Brigid's cross
The intriguing art of Poitín-making (moonshine).

Duration of the programme: 1½ hours approx.

Group size & Price:

Advance Booking Essential

21 to 30 people - 24 euro per person.

11 to 20 people - 26 euro per person.

8 to 10 people - 30 euro per person.

*Please enquire regarding rates for smaller or larger groups.
Only one group per programme - to ensure a personal experience.*

Galway > Moycullen > Cnoc Suain (20 min.)
Galway > An Spidéal > Cnoc Suain (30 min.)

*"Your program for us was outstanding and one of our fondest memories.
Thank you for the program and your warm hospitality"* Pat Lambert, Michigan, US

Cnoc Suain Cultural Retreat, An Spidéal, Conamara, Galway.

P. +353 (0)91 555703 E. info@cnocsuain.com www.cnocsuain.com

The Guardian Green Travel List 2010